

Blueberry "JAM" boree
Notes for June 9th, 2010
7:30 P.M.
Rough Draft

Present: Dorene Adams, Katherine Heck, Lenny Cornwell, Agneta Brown, Neal Brown, Carele Mayer, Jane Winslow

The meeting began with Blueberry Buckle which was prepared and serve by Carele. What a treat! The purpose of the Blueberry Buckle was to try out some of the recipes out of a cookbook we would like to sell at the "JAM" boree. The blueberry treat was accepting with enthusiasm. We thought the cookbook should be one of our blueberry theme items we will sell at the "jam" boree.

The minutes were read from the May meeting with one correction under item 3 tee shirts changing colors to sizes. The minutes were accepted.

Katherine gave each of us a sheet we need to take with us when we get sworn in as members of a sub committee of the Oak Park committee. We just need to go to the town offices during the Town Clerks hours and she will swear us in.

Blueberry items we (the committee) will sell at the "Jam" boree were ordered. There will be 6 mugs (perhaps filled with tea bags), 12 note cards, 12 cookbooks, and a case of 36 soaps. The committee authorized $200 to spend and Katherine spent $199. Good job. 24 TOTAL MUGS | Fill 6

At this time we have 11 vendors but it is still early. Many vendors wait until the last minute to send in their applications. The people from the Greenfield Church will bake 30 - 35 pies. The will get their application in soon. Carele will ask the Methodist Church in Peterborough if the would be interested in baking. The Givers will have slices of Blueberry pies to sell. The Harvester grocery store in Greenfield will have booth.

Katherine will talk to Ms. Kelley about having a horse show. Also Katherine is handing out animal applications to some of the ones that attended last year. She will ask the Guays if they could bring the horse and wagon for rides.

Dorene in going through the list of businesses in the spirit. She will call them and ask them if they would like to be on the place mat. The ads will be $16 for business card size 2 x 3 and $25 for ads 3 x 5. The ads on the T-shirts will be $100. This will help pay for the T-shirts. They also get their name in the brochure. The t-shirts need to be ordered at least 3 weeks ahead.

Next meeting will be July 7th 7 P.M. at the town offices.

The meeting was adjourned at 9 P.M.

Respectfully submitted by Secretary Jane Winslow
