Meeting Minutes

February 6, 2018

18:30 pm

- Deputy LaCourse welcomed Chief Hall back. Chief announced that that 12-31-19 will be his last day as Fire Chief. Between now and then the Board will get a new chief and that the Chief would transition to a training officer.
- EMD Martin asked about when we will start on the bid for the new building. Chief Hall stated by May or June, he has been working on it. There will be two buildings one burn and one block style with a metal stairwell.

9. NEW BUSINESS:

- Lt. Simmons mentioned that the run tally is up on the board. The new names are on the board.
- Discussion was held about chimney brushes. Chief Hall stated that maybe there weren't enough brushes. Lt. Simmons suggested putting together a second chimney unit. Deputy LaCourse stated that for the cost of the brushes we should have more on hand. Capt. Borden will go to Belletetes and get some. Chief Hall stated to let him know what we needed and he would order it.
- Two members at 90 days. Vote took place and all in favor of Tyler St. Cyr and Tod Bryer becoming members.
- EMD Martin, Mike Hoiriis, Captain Batty, Lieutenant Simmons, Deputy LaCourse and Captain Babb volunteered to help at the Pancake breakfast with car wash detail.
- Tanker Update: A public budget hearing was held on Monday, February 5th. We made a presentation for the purchase of a new tanker. This is built in Minnesota at Midwest Fire Tanker. This tanker has everything we need. Its approximately 35 feet, tandem style. We would put a down payment in 2018 and then 19,20, 21 and 22 yearly payments. Chief Hall stated that we need votes on Sat, March 17th. On March 1st the warrant article goes out. The vote has to be 2/3rds. If we lose the tanker, the Board has authorization to buy a used truck.

10. GRANT PROPOSALS: Captain Batty will put in 4 grants. He stated the anticipated cost of the exhaust system will be 70,000 installed. We will be on the hook for 4,000.

11. ANNOUNCEMENTS: None
