Greenfield Fire Department Safety Tips

Brought to you by EMT-I Linda Dodge

Water Safety

Learn to swim! Take some lessons at your local pond or pool. The best thing anyone can do to stay safe in and around the water is to learn to swim. And always swim with a buddy; never swim alone.

Remember to swim in supervised areas only and obey all rules and posted signs.

Don't mix alcohol and swimming. Alcohol impairs your judgement, balance, and coordination, affects your swimming and diving skills, and reduces your body's ability to stay warm.

Pay attention to local weather conditions and forecasts. Stop swimming at the first indication of bad weather.

Boating Safety

Whether you're the captain of a schooner or a passenger on a skiboat, following safety guidelines ensures your safety and that of other seafarers. Wear a life vest even if you know how to swim.

Be weather wise:

Sudden wind shifts, lightning flashes and choppy water all can mean a storm is brewing. Bring a portable radio to check weather reports.

Bring extra gear you may need:

A flashlight, extra batteries, matches, a map of where you are, flares, sun tan lotion, first aid kit, extra sunglasses. Put those things that need to be protected in a watertight pouch or a container that floats.

Tell someone where you are going, who is with you, and how long you'll be away.

Check your boat, equipment, boat balance, engine and fuel supply before leaving.

Hiking and Camping Safety

Many families will head to our national parks and forests this summer to enjoy the great outdoors. But if you're not prepared to rough it in the woods, hiking or camping can be a rough experience. The best way to help guarantee a good time for all is to plan ahead carefully and follow common-sense safety precautions.

Review the equipment, supplies and skills that you'll need. Consider what emergencies could arise and how you would deal with those situations.

Leave a copy of your itinerary with a responsible person. Include such details as the make, year, and license plate of your car, the equipment you're bringing, the weather you've anticipated and when you plan to return.

Pack emergency signaling devices, and know ahead of time the location of the nearest telephone or ranger station in case an emergency does occur on your trip.

Sun Safety

Summer means fun in the sun! But be safe - don't let a heat-related illness ruin your day.

Always drink plenty of water and take frequent breaks when working or playing in the hot weather.

OTHER NEWS, NOTICES AND EVENTS

THE GREENFIELD WOMAN'S CLUB

The Greenfield Woman's Club began in 1921 as the Mother's Club. A group of mothers got together to do things for the school. It is now 85 years later and we are still getting together to help our elementary school. We also help our town and other organizations in town to achieve their goals.

Our constitution notes that the objective of our organization is the social, educational, and moral uplift of our town. We try very hard to accomplish this through programming during the year, our annual Harvest Fair, helping with the Conservation Clean-up Day Dinner, and providing an educational program for the school. We also financially support various town projects.

Our schedule is set for 2006-2007! We are beginning with a community potluck supper at the Meeting House on Friday, September 15th at 6:00 P.M., followed by Edie Clark - "Writing from Home: the View from Mary's Farm". SO-O-O-O... put it on your calendar and join us! Just bring some food, a salad, casserole, or dessert - and join the festivities. We will provide drinks.

Next on our schedule is our annual Harvest Fair. This year it will be on September 30th, Saturday, from 9:30 - 2:30 at the Meeting House. We could use your help with baked goods, hand-mades, and 1 or 2 attic treasures. (Handmades and attic treasures should be dropped off on Friday, the 29th.

Baked goods may be brought on Saturday.) But if you can't help us with items, come and enjoy the fair. See all of the items we have and also enjoy the crafters that are part of our fair. Hope to see you there!

Hope you will be able to join us for some of our meetings and activities. Mothers (and grandmothers) if you're looking for a night out, usually Tuesday from 7 - 8:30 P.M., in town, come and join us. Mostly we just like getting together and enjoying each other's company and getting to know new people in town.

If you have any questions about the club and/or would like to join us, please call me. I would be happy to talk with you.

RECYCLING NEWS

THE GREENFIELD RECYCLING COMMITTEE (GRC)

We are a group of town citizens which has been convened to advise the Board of Selectmen with respect to the administration and future of Greenfield's Recycling Center. The GRC membership currently includes Neal Brown [Chair], Bob Jennings, Roger Lessard (Vice-Chair), Miriam Lockhart, Kent Vincent (Secretary), and Dan Wolaver. The Recycling Center Director, Frank Pelkey, serves on the GRC in the capacity of non-voting member. The GRC meets at the Town Office Building at 7 PM on the first Thursday of each month, and the public is welcome to attend. The minutes of each meeting are posted in a timely manner on the Town's website.

CALL FOR SATURDAY VOLUNTEERS AT THE RECYCLING CENTER

On Saturday, the busiest of the three days when the center is open, Frank needs volunteers to keep material moving while he trouble-shoots and commandeers the yard.. The GRC seeks to recruit at least 8 volunteers to assist him. With this number, each volunteer will be required to serve NO more than one 3 hour stint per month - from either 9 AM to noon or noon to 3 PM. Thus far, we have recruited six volunteers from the GRC and the GIVers, and we now seek the remaining volunteers from interested members of the public. NOTE TO VOLUNTEERS WITH SCHOOL CHILDREN REQUIRING COMMUNITY SERVICE: Whenever you bring your child to the center to assist you as a volunteer, he/or she will be credited hour-for-hour for community service! So, how about you? Are you with us? If so, welcome aboard, and please call Neal Brown at 547-2023 or e-mail him at neal.brown@glsynthesis.com for more info.

CALL FOR THE PUBLIC'S INPUT.

The GRC would appreciate your suggestions for how Greenfield recycling can be improved and made more efficient - particularly if your improvements and efficiencies do not mean higher taxes! SO FIRE AWAY! Come to one of our meetings, call Neal Brown at 547-2023, or e-mail him at neal.brown@glsynthesis.com.

PROTECT YOUR FAMILY

Test Your Well's Water Quality Today

A GUIDE TO WATER QUALITY TESTING FOR PRIVATE WELLS

If you have a private well, then water quality testing should be important to you and your family. Some contaminants in drinking water have been linked to cancer and toxicity, posing a risk to human health. Many contaminants often have no taste, odor or color. Their presence can only be determined by laboratory testing. While there is no state requirement to have your well water tested (although there may be from your mortgage lender or town), the New Hampshire Department of Environmental Services (DES) recommends that all homeowners with private wells do so.

Well water originates as rain and snow that then filters into the ground. As it soaks through the soil, the water can dissolve materials that are present on or in the ground, becoming contaminated. Some contaminants are naturally occurring from features found in the rocks and soils of New Hampshire. These include substances like bacteria, radon, arsenic, uranium, and other minerals.

Other contaminants find their way onto the land from human activities. On a large scale, industrial/commercial activities, improper waste disposal, road salting, and fuel spills can introduce hazardous substances to the ground. However, even typical residential activities, such as the use of fertilizers and pesticides, fueling of lawn equipment, and disposal of household chemical can contaminate the ground when done improperly. That is why taking measures to protect your well from contamination is so important.

The following tests identify common contaminants found in our state's well water. Although more tests could be added, this list provides a cost-effective, reasonable overview of a well's water quality. Contact a certified laboratory for availability and pricing. It is not necessary to do all of these tests at one time.

This basic analysis covers the most common contaminants (See above). Some of these contaminants pose health-related concerns, while others only affect taste and odor.

New Hampshire's geology contains naturally occurring radioactive elements that dissolve easily in well water. A basic radiological analysis will test for uranium, analytical gross alpha, and radon gas.

Contaminants & Testing Frequency

Standard Analysis Testing Frequency

Arsenic Bacteria Chloride Copper Fluoride Hardness Iron Lead Manganese Nitrate/Nitrite pH Sodium		Every 3-5 yrs (except for bacteria and nitrate which are yearly)

Radiological Analysis Radon Uranium Analytical Gross Alpha	Every 3-5 yrs
--	---------------

VOCs	Every 5-10 yrs

Radon is a common well water problem in New Hampshire and testing for it may be required by your lender or your municipality. Presently, there are no federal or state standards for radon in drinking water, only suggested action levels. DES estimates that approximately one-third of private wells in New Hampshire exceed this level, so radiological testing is encouraged.

The most common VOCs come from gasoline compounds (such as MtBE and benzene) and industrial solvents. MtBE can be found in well water even in remote areas.

Circumstances relative to your well may require additional testing not described here. For instance, DES does not recommend routine testing for things like pesticides, herbicides, or synthetic organic compounds, mainly because of the high cost. However, such testing might be warranted if your water has elevated nitrite/nitrate concentrations or significant amounts of pesticide have been applied near the well. These less-routine tests may not be performed at all laboratories.

DES recommends that prospective homebuyers test the water in a home with a private well before purchase. Water quality in wells is generally stable, and if a change is going to occur, it occurs slowly. Thus the interval between water quality tests, once you've purchased the home, can generally be in terms of years (see chart) if a well is properly constructed and located in a safe area.

However, the following conditions would prompt more frequent testing:

- ♦ Heavily developed areas with land uses that handle hazardous chemicals.
- ♦ Recent well construction activities or repairs. DES recommends taking a bacterial test after any well repair or pump or plumbing modification, but only after substantial flushing of the water system.
- ♦ Contaminant concentrations above state and federal standards found in earlier testing.
- ♦ Noticeable variations in quality like a water quality change after a heavy rain or an unexplained change in a previously trouble-free well (i.e. funny taste, cloudy appearance, etc.).
- ♦ When taking any sample, DES recommends that it be taken after a heavy rainstorm. These events tend to highlight conditions of improper well construction or poor soil filtration.

NOTES FROM THE CHILDREN'S LIBRARIAN

Hello, I'm Mrs. T., your new Children's Librarian.

I'm very happy to be working in my hometown library after 20 years in libraries throughout the Monadnock region. Please come to the library, find me, and introduce yourself. Parents, please ask if your child has a registration on file with us. Patron numbers were issued at school without full registration. If we don't have it, we'll get it done. Thanks.

As you are reading this, "Treasure Reading", the summer reading program, is winding down with a certificate party and performance by Partners In Rhyme on August 4 at 4:00 p.m. Thanks to all the readers.

Calling kids of all ages! I'd like your ideas for fall and winter programs, so come to a brainstorming session September 13 at 6:30 p.m. I'd start a bookclub, a knitting or origami group, a chess club, whatever, as long as I know enough kids would participate. Bring your ideas and I'll bring the snacks.

Preschool Storytimes for 3 and 4 year olds begins again Wednesday, September 13 at 10:30 a.m. Three stories will be shared with a related craft or activity.

Toddler Laptimes for 18 months to young 3s will begin Wednesday, September 13 at 10:00 a.m. This 20 minute session includes songs, fingerplays, and a brief introduction to stories.

VANDALISM DISAPPOINTMENT FELT BY ALL

Memorial Day weekend not only brought about fun bbqs, good food and laughter for most, but also bared its ugly head by bringing vandals to Sunset Lake Beach. These individuals who couldn't wait for the Town to properly install and secure the docks took it upon themselves to put them in. As a result, the newly re-built dock's safety has been compromised, and the other dock that was unsafe to begin with, was put in the water too. All of the chains, locks (still intact) and on shore sinkers ended up in the lake that created a huge mess and more importantly, a huge liability for the town. This particular incident occurred in mid-daylight when the beach was full of people, children and adults alike. I would like to reach out to every resident and ask that you help us by reporting anything "not right" to the police. They are best reached by calling dispatch at 547-2525. It has been a disappointment to all residents, young and old. How soon we forget that things like these are a privilege to have. Hopefully next year, if repairs can be made, we will all be patient enough for the docks to be put out by the staff.

We are in the process of talking to a dance teacher, who teaches adult line dancing, ballroom, and more. Hopefully her schedule will allow her to come to Greenfield to get us all movin'. More information to follow.

DO YOU HAVE TALENT?

The Parks and Recreation Department is always looking for people to share their talents. If you have one you'd like to share, please let me know....we'd love to have you!

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

We are seeking volunteers to help us get the brick and stone work finished at Oak Park. This is a great way to learn about masonry work, and for those kids looking for a great community service opportunity, this is it! For more information, please call 562-6380.

NEED COMMUNITY SERVICE HOURS?

Middle school age kids (grades 5 -8) are required to have community service hours. If you'd like to be placed on the list to be called when hours are available, please let me know. I have plenty for you to do!

IS THERE A TRIP IN THE FORECAST?

I have been asked several times if I am planning on another trip to Foxwoods. I would love to schedule another trip as long as I get enough people to fill a coach bus. Are you interested in coming on this fun journey? Please call me to get you name on the interest list. Once I get enough interest, I will plan on getting a date secured with the bus company. It's worth it, considering the gas prices these days!

THANK YOU TO BRIAN PUTNAM!

Results will reveal the level at which any of the tested substances were found in your water sample. The mere presence of these contaminants in well water does not necessarily imply that there is a problem. However, when levels exceed state and federal health standards, you should take steps to correct the situation. Several methods are available from commercial contractors to treat contaminated water. DES has informational documents on the web concerning all common water quality problems and their solutions.

"Your Neighborhood Realtor®"

562-8004 ~ 547-8710

As a Greenfield resident for 25 years, I consider myself YOUR neighborhood Realtor®, working with both sellers AND buyers. I am associated with Prudential Verani Realty at the corner of Rt. 101 and 101A in Milford. I offer many services, including a free market analysis providing you with a snapshot of the value of your home in today's market. List with me and your home will appear on at least 7 websites (including a special "showcased listing" on Realtor.com), be advertised in the Monadnock Ledger, Milford Cabinet, and Nashua Telegraph—we reach a huge audience of prospective buyers looking to move out to a more rural Greenfield. Everyone agrees that our company website, www.pruverani.com, is the best in the state! In today's market, technology makes the difference in getting your property in front of prospective buyers. Approximately 80% of people use the internet to find a home—let them find yours here! For builders, we have a new construction section, and with 4 or more homes, you get your own website, professional logo design, brochures, etc.

I am also an Accredited Buyer's Representative (ABR), in the top 14% of Prudential agents nationwide (selling over 5+ million in sales per year) and recipient of the Achiever of the Year Award for 2005 out of 280 Prudential Verani agents! I listen, advise and work hard for you, my client.
