BALD HEADS AND GREEN HAIR

SELECTMEN'S CHALLENGE

The Board of Selectmen is being put to the test. If everyone who attended Town Meeting in March 2008 remembers; in the event the Town of Greenfield could meet the Board's challenge to increase recycling to 50% by March 2009, Aaron & Jarvis are committed to shaving their heads and Karen to dying her hair green for Town Meeting day. I believe we are all trying hard to see that Karen will have a vibrant green new hairdo, while Jarvis and Aaron will endure the cold with shaved heads.

When this challenge was offered, the Town was only recycling at barely 18%. Well, much to their surprise, we are currently at a bit more than 36%. For details of how this statistic is actually arrived at, you can either talk to Matt or check out the white board at the Recycling Center.

The Recycling Center is open to the public on Tuesdays 8:00 am - Noon, Thursdays 3:00 - 7:00 pm and Saturday 8:00 am - 4:00 pm. Make sure to bring your recyclables and talk with the recycling crew about how we can be sure to better serve our planet and, as a bonus see Karen, Aaron & Jarvis in a manner in which they have never been seen before.

This poster is a sample of what your Selectboard could look like in March 2009. To see the poster in color, it is proudly displayed at the Recycling Center. We are really close to the 50% challenge figure, so be sure to keep recycling and hold these folks to their challenge.

I would like to thank Bruce Dodge for the wonderful caricature, he truly has vision.

Most Sincerely,
Debra Davidson

If you are interested in serving on the Parks and Recreation Committee, please contact Conrad Dumas at 547-2621 or the Board of Selectmen at 547-3442 by August 15th.

DEPT. OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES CAUTIONS PEOPLE AGAINST HEAT-RELATED ILLNESS

Concord, NH – With the high temperatures in the State, the New Hampshire Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) reminds people to take precautions to avoid heat-related illnesses, such as heat cramps, heat stroke, and heat exhaustion.

"Even though we may know what steps to take to prevent heat-related illnesses," said Nicholas Toumpas, Commissioner of DHHS, "they can come on quickly and we may not recognize the symptoms. We want everyone to enjoy all that New Hampshire has to offer, especially in the summer, but safely."

When the body is unable to cool itself sufficiently by sweating, the body temperature rises and people begin to experience symptoms indicating distress. Cool, moist, pale, or flushed skin; heavy sweating; headache; nausea or vomiting; dizziness; and/or fatigue are symptoms of heat exhaustion, which generally occurs when people exercise or work in hot, humid conditions and body fluids are lost. If the patient is not treated, with cool beverages, seeking air conditioning, rest, and removing heavy clothing, heat stroke can result.

The symptoms of heat stroke are red skin that is hot to the touch; changes in consciousness; rapid, weak pulse; and rapid, shallow breathing. The temperature may rise dramatically and the patient's skin may feel dry. If someone is experiencing heat stroke, they should be moved to a cool place and be cooled down with water if possible, and emergency medical help should be called immediately because heat stroke can be life threatening.

"Children and seniors are more at risk of heat-related illness but anyone can suffer from them under the right circumstances," said Dr. Jose Montero, Director of Public Health at DHHS. "There are, however, simple, common-sense precautions to take, including remaining in an air conditioned environment whenever possible, which is the number one protective measure, drinking plenty of fluids, but avoiding caffeine, alcohol, and large amounts of sugar, wearing light clothing, and limiting outdoor activity."

For more information on heat-related illnesses, visit the DHHS website at www.dhhs.nh.gov or the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) at www.cdc.gov.

BOSTON POST CANE

In August 1909, Mr. Edwin A. Grozier, Publisher of the Boston Post, a newspaper, forwarded to the Board of Selectmen in 700 towns* (no cities included) in New England, a gold-headed ebony cane, with the request that it be presented with the compliments of the Boston Post to the oldest male citizen of the town, to be used by him as long as he lives (or moves from the town), and at his death handed down to the next oldest citizen of the town. The cane would belong to the town and not the man who received it. The Town of Greenfield continues to carry on that tradition. On Saturday, August 9, 2008 at 12:00 noon at the Greenfield Historical Society, the Board of Selectmen will proudly award the cane to Richard "Doc" Miner. Doc Miner was born on July 29, 1913, making him 95 years of age. We ask all residents who would like to see Doc receive the cane join us for this event, bringing stories, laughter and warm thoughts to share with all.

In the recent past, recipients of the cane had been Irene Davis & Anna Chute. If there is any historian who knows of others who have received the cane, please let the Selectmen's Office know, as we would like to keep a record of this for historical purposes.

PTO MESSAGE BOARD

Many well deserved congratulations to the 2008 GES Graduates, best of luck to you all!

Additionally, we do not want to miss the chance to say thank you to the outgoing board and the many volunteers for all that they have done this year for the children, faculty and staff in our community. Thank you all for providing the school community with family activities, fairs, and fun. Thank you for sponsoring successful enrichment programs like Children and the Arts and the Harris Center Trip. You worked diligently to raise funds to have professional stage curtains installed....So please take a bow, you've earned it! And know that your leadership and involvement has affected the school and the students more than you can imagine!

On Behalf of newly elected PTO Board, thank you GES for your support, and we hope you will join us at the September PTO meeting to begin planning activities and enrichments for the upcoming school year.

The mission of the Greenfield Parent Teacher Organization is to promote an environment that nurtures and supports exceptional learning by providing experiences and enrichments within and outside the ConVal school curriculum and financial plan through the building of parental, staff, and community involvement.

So mark your calendars as we have a Harvest Fair planned for Saturday, October 4th at the Greenfield Meeting House from 9:30am-3:00pm!

It will be a community event for everyone to enjoy and all proceeds raised will be put toward the PTO's financial goal of continuing the tradition of sending all GES students on the Annual Harris Center Trip.

GIVERS' CORNER

THE GIVERS' MISSION: To build - through fund raising and volunteering - a partnership with the community of Greenfield and to assist the community in meeting its needs.

MEETINGS: We meet over breakfast at the SIDE TRAX at 8:30 AM on the third Wednesday of every month. We'd be pleased to have you drop by and get acquainted. Breakfast will be on us! You also can find out more about us by calling Neal Brown at 547-2023.

NEW MEMBERS: We are pleased to welcome Ben and Adele Hale to our group.

THANK YOUs: We very much appreciated the support of those who attended our Memorial Day Ice Cream Social and visited our food concession at the Historical Society Day at Oak Park.

COMING EVENTS:

Sat. August 2 - Second Annual BLUEBERRY JAMBOREE at Oak Park!

This is our 2nd year as food concessionaires for this lalapalooza, and we are planning some interesting new offerings. Please join us for good eats and a great family event!

GARDENING INITIATIVE:

The major goals of our gardening "movement" are two: that it be embraced by the community and, as it matures, that it be run and perpetuated by those who join it. To those ends, we now have selected an official name - Greenfield Community Gardens - and, despite a late start, we have recruited our first members. We are pleased to report that there are now five small frames up and running at our site on the ball field by the Town Office Building. Please stop by and see for yourself how much can be done on a simple 3' x 8' raised organic plot. There are tomatoes, cukes, summer squash, lettuce, radishes, beets, beans, and more - all vigorously growing.

Diane Boilard and David & Hilda Bridgewater, the GIVERS' official organic gardeners, have been busy surveying other local community garden programs, and they are currently working up a set of guidelines and rules to govern the program as it grows during the coming years. First among these is the requirement that users keep all of their operations strictly "organic" and use no chemical fertilizers, herbicides, pesticides, etc. This is a particularly important rule, because the ball field site is located over one of Greenfield's largest aquifers, and we do not want to risk contaminating it with chemicals.

Our gardening trio also are brainstorming about the range of plot sizes to offer, the most efficient plot layouts, mechanics and cost of membership, and the design and construction of a sign and entrance fence.

So, fellow Greenfielders, do any of you have a green thumb itching for a Community Gardens plot in 2009? If so, call Neal Brown at 547-2023 for more details about the program and how to become a member. We would be very pleased to sign you up for an early bird start next Spring.

LEAVES!!! One last thing - we are seeking to make an on-site communal compost pile, and, to that end, we're seeking leaves.

If you have any which you can contribute this Fall, please call Diane Boilard at 547-6662 for details.

WOOD BANK REPORT:

Donations: During the 2007-2008 season the GIVERS-Crotched Mountain Foundation Woodbank provided a total of ~ 9 cords of stovewood free of charge to qualified Greenfield residents. This season we have stockpiled a slightly larger reserve. So, if you need some wood to help you through the winter, and the cost is more than you can afford, please call 547-3442 and discuss your situation with Deb Davidson, the Town of Greenfield administrator. After establishing need, Deb will contact us to make arrangements for obtaining wood.

Emergency Fuel/Utility Assistance: In the Fall of 2007 we also sold wood and used the proceeds to provide assistance to Greenfield citizens who require emergency help with their fuel and utility bills. We will be doing this again this Fall (see below). Please note that this emergency assistance is not coordinated by either the GIVERS or by Deb Davidson, but by Southern NH Services (SNHS). To inquire, one may contact one of the following offices. SNHS will determine eligibility and take care of the rest of the application process.

SNHS
46 Concord St
Peterborough 03458
877-757-7048 (Toll-free)
603-924-5756

SNHS
4 Church St
Hillsboro 03244
603-464-5835

2008 Wood Sale: To fund our SNHS initiative, we intend to sell a total of 15 cords of first-rate (> 90 % oak), well-seasoned, ready-to-burn stovewood. We are offering this at $ 225 per cord - picked up by the buyer at our wood yard (We will not be offering delivery of our "sale" wood this year).

Because of the great number of inquiries to buy wood, we have decided, in the interests of fairness, to limit the sale to 1 cord per customer and to select customers by lottery. If you would like to purchase a cord of wood from us, here's how to proceed: leave your name and tel. # with either Neal Brown at 547-2023 or Diane Boilard at 547-6662 before August 15. Your name and number will be recorded on a "ticket". All of the tickets will be mixed, and 15 of them will be drawn sequentially and at random by a blind-folded Deb Davidson, Town Administrator. Each of the 15 names drawn will be contacted and offered wood. All entrants who were not selected also will be informed of the result. If any wood remains unsold after the August 15 lottery, it will be offered on a first-come, first-served basis to interested buyers. Call Neal Brown after August 22 to inquire about availability and place an order.

WELCOME BASKET PROGRAM: We continue to deliver baskets to Greenfield newcomers, and we rely on tips from Spirit readers like you to locate many of them. So, please call our point person, Mary Ann Grant, at 547-8856. if you know of anyone who has recently taken up residence in Greenfield.

-Thanks for supporting the GIVERS-

NOTES FROM THE CHILDREN'S LIBRARIAN

As you get this issue we are wrapping up the six week summer program. "G'Day for Reading" was a full summer of programs, crafts and story times. Our summer reading partners at the Victoria Park Library in Perth, Australia sent us a great package of Australian books, information sheets and kids' favorites in many categories. And of course they sent a tube of Vegemite for everyone to try! We sent them the book "G is for Granite", NH fact pencils, our state symbols and our favorites lists as well as some maple sugar candy. Thank you to the 3rd and 4th grade at GES for being so enthusiastic about this project.

September brings the return to school and the beginning of class visits to the library. Orange registration cards will be going home with ALL students. Even if you know your child has a library card number, please fill it out so I can keep accurate records. The library will be assigning patron barcodes soon, so this is even more important this fall. Kindergarten and new students will receive library card numbers when they visit with their classes. Thank you in advance for your assistance.

Ladybug Book Award story times for homeschoolers and those not yet in school will be held September 10, 17, 24 at 10:30 a.m. Come listen to the book choices and then vote for your favorite. This is a state wide program for children preschool age through grade 3 to foster a love of books and reading. 12,000 children voted last year!

HISTORICAL SOCIETY NEWS

The June Historical Fair at Oak Park drew a decent turnout on a very hot day. A slight breeze made it more bearable. A big hit were the appraisers from Knotty Pine Auction, who were kept busy during their time there. A mall collection of real old bicycles brought by the NH Wheelmen garnered a lot of questions. Some of the bikes were also ridden by the presenters. Music, dance, horse drawn wagon rides, craft vendors and demonstrations rounded out the day. Old Tractor, trucks, and an old buckboard were on display as well as a fair amount of photos from the historical Society Collection. The GIVers once again served up food and beverages

In early June, a group of students in Bob Marshall's ConVal advanced Placement U.S. History class spent two weeks researching the history of the railroad in Greenfield. The students spent many hours studying various sources of information, putting it into a booklet and a power point program. This program was shown at the library. Afterwards, the booklet and a diorama of Greenfield village circa 1900 were given to the Historical Society and a text is on display at the museum.

At the Blueberry JAMboree, the Historical Society will have a tent with displays of The Oak Park Fair, Hillsborough County Fair, The Whing Ding and of course articles on Greenfield's own blueberries. We will be selling Town Histories and Charles Cavendar - His Tale books.

September will bring Rich Stadnick for a return visit. This time, a member meeting will be held at the Historical Museum a 12:30 pm. Immediately following the meeting, outside of the museum, will be the cider talk and pressing demonstration until 3:00 pm.

October 29th, in the Peter Wensberg Room at the Stephenson Memorial Library, haunted tales will be the "vision" of the evening. We will have more information to follow as we get closer to this event, hosted by the Historical Society and the Library.

The museum will be open Saturdays 11 - 2 pm through October 11th. Please feel free to drop by.

GREENFIELD FIRE DEPARTMENT SAFETY TIPS

Brought to you by EMT-I Linda Dodge

SAFE DEBRIS BURNING

There are many factors to consider when planning this type of burning. The fire warden will explain all of them to you. Weather is important. Windy, dry days are not suitable for burning, because of the added danger that the fire will escape your control. Stay with your fire until it is out. You may decide not to burn; but if you decide to go ahead, please follow the advice of the fire warden to the letter. Debris fires account for about one fourth of the more than 100,000 forest fires that blacken the USA each year. Here's what you can do to cut down this waste.

General Rules For Safe Debris Burning

· Contact a GFD Fire Warden- they are listed below.

- Make sure you have a valid permit.
- DO NOT use gasoline to start your fire. Newspaper, birch bark, or a small amount of fuel oil are much safer ways to start fires.
- Check the weather - don't burn on dry, windy days.
- Local fire officials can recommend a safe way for burning debris.
- Debris should be placed in a cleared area, away from overhead branches and wires.
- Debris should not be accumulated for several days and then ignited. It becomes compacted and wet, increasing the air pollution, and makes the fire burn longer, requiring more watching.
- Check with the fire warden for hours of allowed burning.
- Consider the alternatives to burning. Some types of debris, such as leaves, grass, and stubble, may be of more value if they are not burned.

Household trash should be hauled away to a recycling station.

· Lumber with any kind of finish or glue cannot be burned. That includes chipboard and plywood.

· Be sure you are fully prepared before burning.

· A buried fire is not an extinguished fire. Fires should be soaked before leaving them unattended.

· Keep the phone close by, in case you have to call the fire department.

· Remember to call 911 before you attempt to put out any fire.

If you must burn debris, do it safely.

Naomi Graham, Lauryn Welch, Elizabeth Quick, Lorin Reutlinger, Kate W., Sam Baker-Salmon and I, left for Connecticut on Monday, June 23. We stayed there for a night and then left for NYC the next day. On this day we first visited the Metropolitan Museum of Art and enjoyed the Superheroes: Fashion and Fantasy and the Jeff Koons "On The Roof" exhibitions, as well as the ancient art they have there. That night we went to a Blue Man Group performance to experience some very modern theatrical art. The next day we visited The Museum of Modern Art (MoMA) to see some amazing modern installations, such as a fan hanging from the ceiling and blowing itself around the room, and rooms that have constantly changing light, casting strange shadows. Next we visited The New Museum and had a tour that focused a lot on the architecture of the building, much like poorly stacked blocks. There was also a series of paintings and light installations that captured our attention. We stopped by Pearl Paints to pick up some art supplies from the five-story art shop, and then headed back to Connecticut where we stayed another night. The last day, we packed up and headed back.

THE GREENFIELD HISTORICAL SOCIETY - 35 YEARS

In early 1973 a group of Greenfield citizens got together at a meeting, forming the Greenfield New Hampshire Historical Society. By - laws, officers and a board of Directors were chosen. Their intent was to preserve town and family history by cataloging and writing information before it was lost in only memories. A lot of thought and effort went into setting up the Society as a non - profit organization. Most meetings were held in the library. A little over 30 years later we are very fortunate to have our own Historical Society Museum. This was made possible by the generous donation of Robert and Francis (Fitch) Blaisdell through the sale of their Peace Cottage in Concord, Massachusetts. Another fortunate gift was of the lot where the museum was built by the Town of Greenfield.

We have deep gratitude and admiration for all those who have helped the Historical Society, past and present members, residents, as well as people who had connections to the town helped to keep this dream alive and ongoing. Donations of time, talents, money, photos, ephemera, and artifacts have allowed us to piece together past life in Greenfield. There are too many people, who have helped the Historical Society to list everyone for their dedication to preserving the heritage of Greenfield. We thank all of you very much.

In reading newspaper clippings this spring, I came across one that made reference to the town historian around the year of 1916. I am not sure if this was the correspondent for the Peterborough Transcript, who wrote about Greenfield. The way it was written, the historian may have been jokingly called that by friends because of the news that was collected. More research is needed during the hot summer in the pleasantly cool archival room of the Historical Museum.

Lenny Cornwell, President
