Kevin McDonald The New DPW Director

SPECIAL TOWN MEETING DECEMBER 12

The Board of Selectmen has called a special town meeting on December 12th at 9am at the Town Offices to discuss and vote on the sale of the Greenfield Industries building and the Long Block. During the process of completing the sale to NEM Holdings, LLC after the auction on November 14th, it was discovered that the town had not voted on RSA 41:14a which gives the Board of Selectmen the authority to sell town property. This has held up the sale of this property until the town gives its permission via town meeting.

There will be two warrant articles, one for permission to sell this property and the other to correct this oversight so that in the future, the Board of Selectmen will be able to complete a sale such as this one. RSA 41:14a requires that the sale of a property be presented to the Planning Board and the Conservation Commission for their input and that there be 2 public hearings to get public input.

It is extremely important that people attend this meeting so that this sale can go forward. The Board has been assured by the Auctioneer, Jean St. Jean, who has been in the business for many, many years, that we got as much as we could reasonably expect considering the condition of the buildings and the state of the economy. The prospective owners have expressed an interest in a public meeting to discuss what the town would like to see the building used for and have already asked for pictures of what the building looked like originally. The Board feels that this bodes well for the town and will set up the public meeting as soon as the sale is final.

NEW DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS DIRECTOR

The Board of Selectmen has hired Kevin McDonald as the Town's new DPW Director. Kevin has a long background in site construction and contracting, extensive municipal experience, and is an EMT. His last job was as the Director of Emergency Management for the American Red Cross. In that capacity, he directed and oversaw a large number of employees and volunteers.

Kevin is a very organized individual and has many plans for the DPW. He is currently taking an inventory of all DPW property and plans to computerize systems for more efficiency.

The DPW is responsible for maintenance and upkeep of all town buildings as well as maintenance and plowing of all Town roads. Kevin will be looking into new systems to make the operation more efficient. After a survey of the premises, he is taking measures to protect Town equipment and other property by putting up a gate at the entrance of DPW drive which will be open during operating hours for the DPW and the Recycling Center but closed at other times.

During the first two weeks of Kevin's employment he took the UNH Road Scholar T² training and is ambitious to start a road and culvert survey in the spring to prioritize the Town's highway needs.

Kevin lives in New Ipswich with his wife, Misty, but soon hopes to move to Greenfield. Kevin told us that he grew up in a town much like Greenfield and wants to put down roots and become part of the community.

If you need to speak to Kevin about a problem or to just get acquainted, he can be reached at the Town garage at 547-3504.

FEMA FLOOD MAPS

This is a letter we received from Chesapeake Flood Services. If anyone is concerned about property in the flood plain, he/she may go to the Town Office and look at these maps. This information is provided as a service to residents but is not an endorsement of this company.

Board of Selectmen

As you may be aware, your community recently received new FEMA flood maps on 9/25/09. I can assist the residents in your community who may have had the mandatory flood insurrequirements inadvertently ance placed upon them. We handle the ENTIRE process of a Letter of Map Amendment (FEMA process by which a homeowner can remove their property from flood insurance premiums) on behalf of property owners. We hire and pay for the surveyor, collect the required documentation (deeds, plats, tax maps, etc.), prepare all of the required FEMA forms, and handle any communications with FEMA.

With today's difficult economy, we save homeowners thousands of dollars in premiums, while increasing the value of their property. Compare our services to having your taxes prepared by a professional. We handle the entire complicated, time consuming, governmental process, and once we are successful (full payment only required once the Letter of Map Amendment is granted) the homeowner generally recovers our fees within 2 years. The homeowner will spend about 5 minutes with us, compared to hours of their own time collecting all of the required documentation. On average, FEMA's national call center receives 500 calls per day from homeowners throughout the country needing assistance, as they attempt to handle the process on their own. We alleviate this burden on the homeowner.

After the successful Letter of Map Amendment process, the homeowner can be refunded one year's premium from their insurance company, yearly premiums are no longer required, and the value of their property is immediately increased as the mandatory flood insurance requirement is lifted. Many of our clients have considered our service a tremendous investment, and actually have profited from doing business with us.

Feel free to contact me at any time.

Thanks.

In Memory of Herbert Seigars

10/1/30 - 9/22/09

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all the folks who gathered around us in support of our family during our loss. So many to thank for so much kindness... from all the great food to the caring company and great stories. It was a lovely gathering at the Greenfield Meeting House after the funeral service. No doubt, Herb was surely honored by all those he genuinely cared about. Here's to Herb...husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend....he will be missed dearly.

GREENFIELD HISTORICAL SOCIETY

A couple quick corrections to the last issue of the Historical Society column. The Hay story was about Mac Moses who was hauling rowen on his wagon.

That article is connected to this one in a way. BARNS! Just about every house needed a barn. Even if they only used it for wood storage. Most of them had a horse and buggy for transportation. Buggy is used here to cover various types of wheeled vehicles for hauling of goods or people.

After clearing land, the settlers had two things to get done fairly quickly. Building a cabin for shelter and getting a crop in the ground after several years.

Barns to house horses and cows were not a very high priority with the first settlers. Log lean-tos were enough to cover them some from the elements. As time went on and allowed, better barns were put up to store animals, buggies, and the hay.

Steam sawmills made building better and bigger houses and barns much quicker and easier.

Downtown Greenfield in the mid to late 1800's had several large barns. One was very near to the present town offices. From some very old photos it looked to be about 2 or 3 stories high. Carriages and sleighs were built there and painted also on site.

Another large one was the stage barn on Depot Street. It could be entered on the upper floor from Slip Road and was extremely close to the McCanna house and barn. The stage barn looked to be 3 storied and perhaps 100' long. It burned, along with the McCanna barn and house in the 1901 fire,

Some of the photos at the Historical Society show long gone farms and barns. Greenfield had more open land in the late 1800's. People traveling around town could easily tell by the size or number of barns where they were. Such a shame so many of the structures are gone now. There are photos we have, that list no one's name or road on them. At least we get to see the magnificence of these barns.

The historical society is just starting to explore the possibility of building a small barn at our site. This would be an older style barn. The barn floor primarily to be for our 1929 fire truck. A small loft area above could accommodate the ice saw, sleigh and other items too big for the main museum. The walls could have various items put up for displays also.

A barn committee has been formed by the members of the Historical Society. Lennie Weeks and Frank Shea are co-chairpersons of this committee. If anyone is interested in being on the committee or have input about this project please contact the Society.

Our 2nd Haunted Readings with the library on October 26th was nicely attended this year. We had four readers, Chris Tarrio, Putnam Ercoline, Kathy Morrocco, and Jane Winslow, all kept the audience wondering...who done it? ...where was it?.. and what was it?

In early November, the Society had two workbees. We sorted, filed and placed items in the archival room. Also we have trunks to be unpacked and cataloged. There is a rack of clothes that need to be gone through and cataloged. Also there are many news articles and photographs to be put in albums. If you missed the first two workbees and would like to help let Lenny or Jane know. We could also have workbees in the evening if that would work better for you.

We will not have a Christmas season event this year. We will be working on something that will take place next year. Let us know if you have a fun, easy program/project that could be open to everyone.

GREENFIELD FIRE DEPT. SAFETY TIPS

Brought to you by EMT-I Linda Dodge

Holiday Safety

Maneuver.

As family and friends are gathered around the kitchen and living room for typical Holiday activities, please remember to be SAFE!.

Below are the top reasons your holiday dinner could be spent in the ER or burn unit instead of the dining room.

1. Choking on an Appetizer Anybody can get something stuck in his or her throat. It's decidedly more common for the kids and grandparents. Everyone should know the Heimlich

2. Cutting yourself Instead of the Turkey

Cutting yourself in the kitchen is a curse -- bacteria from food abounds, but if you have everything you need to clean your wound in your medicine cabinet or first aid box, you're ready. Keep knives and sharp utensils away from young children. Better yet make the kitchen off limits to children.

3. Lighting the Kitchen on Fire Grease fires are notoriously dangerous.

It's easy to extinguish the typical grease fire by smothering it, but make sure everyone is heading out of the house first ...and call 911. Use back burners when possible and never extend the handle of a pot over the edge of the stove.

4. Getting burned by the Oven Burns are some of the most common injuries around the house. Make sure you know what to do if you or someone else gets a little too close to the heat. Keep clutter at bay and do not wear long open sleeves or dangling jewelry.

5. Getting Sick from the Food Learn how to recognize food poisoning symptoms, and follow good food safety tip. Never defrost a turkey at room temperature. No time to defrost; consider buying a fresh turkey. They are yummy! Rule of thumb for time is 1 day refrigerator thawing for every four pounds of turkey.

6. Don't let the decorations you put up

Dear Neighbors,

I would like to take the opportunity to thank all of those people who helped make the first year of Greenfield Recreation Soccer a success. First, to our generous sponsors, Delay's Harvester Market and American Steel and Precast Erectors, thank you for your support. Your sponsorship helped to defer the costs associated with starting a new sports program. It also ensured that the cost to athletes was minimal; guaranteeing that anyone interested could play. Second, thank you to all the parents who supported the team by volunteering. Your donation of time is greatly appreciated. Finally, a huge thank you to our coach Mellissa Ross for her dedication to this program. Melissa put a tremendous amount of time and effort into this for our community. We are lucky to have such an energetic coach for this program. I am looking forward to watching this program grow in our community.

Both events will happen at the Greenfield Meeting House.

Friday December 18th, 6:30 pm: Homer's Odysseus - presented by Sebastian Lockwood

We begin at Book V with Odysseus weeping on Calypso's island. We then cover the great encounters: Princess Nausika, the Cyclops, Circe, Hades, the Lotus Eaters. We end on Ithaka, with the recognition scenes, confrontations with the suitors, and resolution with Penelope. Themes: the laws of hospitality, mortality and immortality, words before violence, reconciliation, olive wood as a symbol of restored peace and civility, the journey as allegory. Now you can ask Homer what so delayed Odysseus in his return, about the story of Troy, and the reunion with faithful Penelope.

Friday January 15th, 6:30 pm: That Reminds Me of a Story: Yankee Humor and the New England Storytelling Tradition presented by Rebecca Rule

Good stories never die, they evolve from teller to teller. New England has a rich and ongoing storytelling tradition from folklore to "Bert and I" to stories about your family, your life, or the town you live in. Humorist Rebecca Rule will prime the pump with stories she's collected at small-town gatherings, often at historical societies and libraries, over the last ten years, plus a classic or two. Our "discussion" will be the stories that listeners offer up, and as one story leads to another -- humorous, serious, thought-provoking, or just plain entertaining -- we practice and preserve our stories and tradition. And laugh, a lot.

Both of these events are free and open to anyone who wants to join us for what is sure to be two very entertaining evenings!

GIVERS' CORNER

THE GIVers' MISSION:

To build - through fund raising and volunteering - a partnership with the community of Greenfield and to assist the community in meeting its needs.

MEETINGS:

Third Wednesday of every month at 8:30 am over breakfast in the Wensberg room of the Stephenson Library.

WANT TO GET ACQUAINTED WITH OUR ORGANIZATION?

Please come to a meeting and have breakfast on us. We'd very much like to meet you. If that's not possible, you can find out more about us by calling Neal Brown at 547-2023.

NEED EMERGENCY HELP TO MEET YOUR FUEL OR ELECTRIC BILL?

As noted in the last issue of The Spirit, we have contributed $2000 from our wood sales to the Southern New Hampshire Services (SNHS) Emergency Fund for Greenfield residents who may have an emergency need to pay utility or "energy" bills.

How to apply for SNHS emergency assistance: This Emergency fund is for Greenfield residents only, and it is not coordinated by either the GIVers or the Town of Greenfield. It is administered directly by SNHS. To inquire, contact one of the following SNHS offices. Someone there will determine your eligibility and take care of the rest of the application process.

SNHS 46 Concord St PETERBOROUGH 03458 877-757-7048 (Toll-free) 603-924-5756 SNHS 4 Church St HILLSBORO 03244 603-464-5835

NEED SOME "EMERGENCY" FIREWOOD FROM OUR WOOD BANK?

We have a limited amount of seasoned stovewood on hand for occasional distribution to people in need. So, if you should need a small amount to "tide you over", but can't afford to buy it, please call 547-3442 to discuss your situation with Deb Davidson, the Town of Greenfield Administrator. After establishing need, Deb will contact Neal Brown, Woodbank Manager, and he will call you to make the appropriate arrangements to get some wood to you.

THANKS FOR SUPPORTING OUR HOLIDAY WREATH SALE.

We hope that you have enjoyed your purchase as much as we enjoyed putting it together for you. Your patronage, together with the proceeds of our Blueberry Jamboree Lunch, will give a big lift to the Rec. Department's plan to restore the Oak Park playground.

WINTER CARNIVAL: SAVE THE DATES - FRI-SAT., FEB. 12-13, 2010.

The Rec. Dept, the P.T.O., and the GIVers are scheming to build on last year's success and bring Greenfield the best Carnival ever - ice fishing and sledding contests, chili cook-off, teen dance, and much more! Keep your fingers crossed for good weather!

-Thanks for supporting the GIVers-

get you down

If you're using candles as a center piece or around the room, never leave them burning when you are away from home, or after going to bed. Candles should be located where children will not be tempted to play with them, and where guests will not accidentally brush against them. Candle holders should be noncombustible and difficult to knock over. And keep combustible decorations away from any flame.

The holidays are an exciting time of year for kids, and to help ensure they have a safe holiday season, here are some tips from the American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP).

Trees

- · When purchasing an artificial tree, look for the label "Fire Resistant."
- · When purchasing a live tree, check for freshness. A fresh tree is green, needles are hard to pull from branches and when bent between your fingers, needles do not break. The trunk butt of a fresh tree is sticky with resin.
- · When setting up a tree at home, place it away from fireplaces, radiators or portable heaters. Place the tree out of the way of traffic and do not block doorways.
- · Cut a few inches off the trunk of your tree to expose the fresh wood. This allows for better water absorption and will help to keep your tree from drying out and becoming a fire hazard.

· Be sure to keep the stand filled with water, because heated rooms can dry live trees out rapidly.

Lights

- · Never use electric lights on a metallic tree. The tree can become charged with electricity from faulty lights, and a person touching a branch could be electrocuted.
- · Before using lights outdoors, check labels to be sure they have been certified for outdoor use. To hold lights in place, string them through hooks or insulated staples, not nails or tacks. Never pull or tug lights to remove them
- · Check all tree lights-even if you've

just purchased them-before hanging them on your tree. Make sure all the bulbs work and that there are no frayed wires, broken sockets or loose connections

- · Plug all outdoor electric decorations into circuits with ground fault circuit interrupters to avoid potential shocks.
- · Turn off all lights when you go to bed or leave the house. The lights could short out and start a fire.

Decorations

- · Use only non-combustible or flameresistant materials to trim a tree. Choose tinsel or artificial icicles of plastic or nonleaded metals.
- · Never use lighted candles on a tree or near other evergreens. Always use nonflammable holders, and place candles where they will not be knocked down.
- · Follow container directions carefully to avoid lung irritation while decorating with artificial snow sprays.
- · Remove all wrapping papers, bags, paper, ribbons and bows from tree and fireplace areas after gifts are opened. These items can pose suffocation and choking hazards to a small child or can cause a fire if near flame.

Toy Safety

- · Select toys to suit the age, abilities, skills and interest level of the intended child. Toys too advanced may pose safety hazards for younger children.
- · Before buying a toy or allowing your child to play with a toy that he has received as a gift, read the instructions carefully.
- To prevent both burns and electrical shocks, don't give young children (under age ten) a toy that must be plugged into an electrical outlet. Instead, buy toys that are battery-operated
- · Children under age three can choke on small parts contained in toys or games. Government regulations specify that toys for children under age three cannot have parts less than 1 1/4 inches in diameter and 2 1/4 inches long.
- · Children under age 8 can choke or suffocate on uninflated or broken balloons. Remove strings and ribbons from toys before giving them to young children.
- · Watch for pull toys with strings that are more than 12 inches in length. They could be a strangulation hazard for babies.

Winter Weather Terms From The NY State Emergency Management Office

Have you ever wondered why weathermen call for watches, warning and advisories when reporting weather conditions? The info below is provided by the NY State Emergency Management Office and provides some very good explanations to the terms we hear so often.

Watches

Winter Storm Watch: Issued for the possibility of severe life-threatening winter weather conditions including: heavy snow, heavy ice and/or near blizzard conditions. Forecasters are typically 50 percent confident that severe winter weather will materialize when a watch is issued.

Blizzard Watch: Issued for the possibility of blizzard conditions. Forecasters are typically 50 percent confident that blizzard conditions will materialize when a blizzard watch is issued Lake-Effect Snow Watch: Issued for the potential for heavy lake effect snow.

Wind Chill Watch: Issued for the potential of wind chills of -25F or less, which can cause rapid frostbite and increase the risk of hypothermia.

Warnings

Winter Storm Warning: Issued for a combination of heavy snow and/or ice, of which, at least one exceeds or meets warning criteria. Winter weather is expected to cause life-threatening public impact for a combination of winter hazards including heavy snow, ice, near blizzard conditions, blowing and drifting snow and/or dangerous wind chills.

Heavy Snow Warning: Issued when 7 inches or more of snow is expected in 12 hours or less, or 9 inches or more is expected in 24 hours or less. Heavy Snow Warnings are issued when there is a high degree of confidence that the entire event will be snow.

Ice Storm Warning: Issued for a ½ inch or more of ice accumulation which causes damage to power lines and trees. Ice Storm Warnings are issued when there is a high degree of confidence that the entire event is expected to be ice.

Blizzard Warning: Issued when blizzard conditions are imminent or expected in the next 12 to 24 hours. Blizzard conditions include sustained or frequent gusts of or above 35 mph AND considerable falling, blowing and drifting of snow reducing visibilities frequently 1/4 mile.

Lake-Effect Snow Warning: Issued for 7 inches or more of lake-effect snow.

Wind Chill Warning: Issued when the wind chill is expected to be -25F or less. Frostbite can occur in less than 10 minutes

Advisories

Winter Weather Advisory: Issued for a hazardous combination of snow, and ice of which neither meets or exceeds warning criteria. Issued for winter weather that will cause significant inconveniences or could be life-threatening if the proper precautions are not taken.

Snow Advisory: Issued when an average of 4 to 6 inches of snow is expected in 12 hours or less. Snow advisories are issued when there is a high degree of confidence that the entire event will be snow.

Freezing Rain Advisory: Any accumulation of freezing rain that can make roads slippery. Freezing rain advisories will only be issued when there is a high degree of confidence that the entire event will be freezing rain only.

Snow and Blowing Snow Advisory: Sustained wind or frequent gusts of 25 to 34 mph accompanied by falling and blowing snow, occasionally reducing visibility to a 1/4 mile or less for three hours or more.

or localized blowing snow reducing visibilities to a 1/4 or less with winds less than 35 mph.

Lake-Effect Snow Advisory: Issued for an average of 4 to 6 inches of lake effect snow.

Wind Chill Advisory: Issued for wind chills of -15F to -24F. Frostbite can occur in less than 30 minutes.

RECYCLING CENTER News

There are some new things going on at the Recycling Center since the last article in the Spirit.

First, there is a new system for weighing and charging for disposal of construction and demolition debris at the center. The construction dumpster is still used for bulky items and furniture, and there are charges for these items by the piece. There has been a scale installed and housed across from the construction dumpster so that construction and demolition debris can be weighed and residents will be charged at a rate of 10 cents/pound to dispose of it. A recycling attendant needs to be seen in order to remove the debris from your vehicle with the fork lift and weigh it, then dispose of it. This system has been designed to save residents money for demolition disposal by charging them a pound rate rather than estimating the cost by charging at a partial or full truck load rate. In the past, residents were charged the same rate for a half ton pickup load or a dump truck load. The price charged per pound will also help to more accurately reflect the tipping fees that the town pays for demolition removal, and that excess cost will be less in the recycling center operating budget. So, please start with seeing Matt or Austin and they will help you with the whole process.

There is also a new area for yard waste and leaves, located by the metal pile behind the recycling center. Please put only untreated wood in the burn pile and ask if you're not sure whether what you have goes in the burn pile or the yard waste area.

There are also barrels for collection of food waste. This will be used to generate compost. Please put any food waste that is biodegradable, including egg shells, coffee grounds (but not the paper filters), vegetable and fruit scraps (except citrus skins), and any other food products EXCEPT meat or bones. It's fine for the stuff to be frozen when put in the barrels, and many people find this an easy and clean way to store the food waste until going to the recycling center. Just remove it from the plastic bag before disposing of it in the barrels. Thanks for your help with this, and every little bit helps toward making "black gold" for our gardens in the form of compost!

This is just a reminder to residents that the recycling center is only open on Tuesday from 8- noon, Thursday from 1-5 and Saturday 8-4. If you come to the center when it isn't open, but the cable is down, it doesn't mean that you are free to go into the center and get rid of trash. While the cable is up most of the time when the center is closed, sometimes the highway or recycling center staff have it down during off hours. So, please respect the open hours, and feel free to contact Matt with any questions or concerns you might have at 547-8617 Tuesday through Saturday.

Here's wishing everyone a joyful and peaceful holiday season. In the next issue of the Spirit, there will be information about the revenues generated and costs saved by the residents using the Recycling Center in 2009. Let's keep up the good work for our community and the environment by practicing the principles of reduce, reuse, recycle and recover the resource.

Respectfully submitted by Pat La Pree for the Recycling Center Staff.

TOWN ENERGY COMMITTEE (TEC) News

On two consecutive Saturdays in October, the Greenfield Town Energy Committee installed winterization kits on 34 windows in the Town Office Building (TOB). Seven volunteers, Diane Boilard, Candi and Stan Fowler, Andrew Heck, Roger Lessard, Gary "Cookie" Smith, and Dan Wolaver donated a total of 57.75 hours to this effort. Andrew, Dan, and Cookie also donated caulking materials.

Outer storm windows were shut and any gaps either caulked or sealed with duct tape.

Windows without storms were caulked. Drooping upper sashes were raised to a closed position and screwed or nailed shut. Window locks (where present) were locked.

Some of the plastic sheeting has since pulled away, mostly in the gymnasium where the window trim was painted with glossy enamel. TEC members will remedy this situation and monitor it at each of its monthly meetings.

All exterior TOB walls have now been insulated, and the attic capped to R55 level. This, combined with minimal use of the upstairs meeting room during the heating season, should yield a significant saving in fuel consumption this winter.

The TEC is now investigating the feasibility of installing motion activated light switches, where practical, in municipal buildings. These switches would automatically shut off lights when no activity has been detected for 10 minutes, and they can also be operated manually.

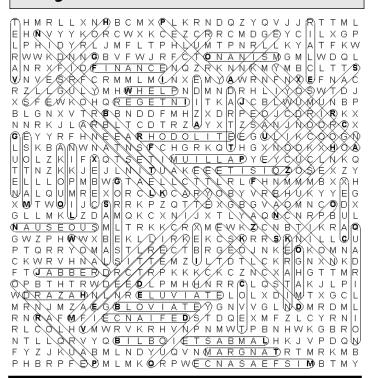

There are numerous energy conservation grants available, some specifically for historic buildings. The TEC is searching to find which ones we qualify for, and will apply for them, in the effort to reduce any cost to the town. As always, anyone interested in joining the TEC, or would like to share an energy saving idea, can contact TEC Chairman Roger Lessard at 547-3204 or mtking1@pobox.com. The TEC meets on the third Thursday of the month at 7 PM, usually in the TOB kitchen.

Many people, who have moved away from Greenfield, have expressed an interest in receiving the Spirit to keep up with what is going on in town and to learn about their friends.
